COMMITMENT TO ATTEND CLASS:

In order to get the full benefit of dance instruction, students should consistently attend class, and be on time. Warm-up prior to the start of class is essential in the prevention of injuries. Students who arrive fifteen minutes or more after the start of class will not be allowed to participate. They are welcome to sit and observe the class.

CODE OF CONDUCT:

Northwest Tap Connection is committed to enriching the lives of all students through dance and life building skills. The philosophy of Choices, Options and Consequences is incorporated in all dance curriculums taught at the studio. Students are encouraged to be responsible for the Choices, Options and Consequences of both positive and negative behaviors as a representative of the studio. Defining the difference between Reputation and Integrity is woven into the curriculum.

Consequences for both positive and negative behaviors are discussed with students, parents and the Program Director.
